

The Mosslands School - Privacy Notice (How we use pupil information)

The categories of pupil information that we collect, hold and share include:

- Personal information (such as name, unique pupil number and address)
- Characteristics (such as ethnicity, language, nationality, country of birth and free school meal eligibility)
- Attendance information (such as sessions attended, number of absences and absence reasons)
- Assessment information
- Medical information
- Special educational needs information
- Exclusions/behavioural information
- Biometric data

Why we collect and use this information

We use the pupil data:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to comply with the law regarding data sharing
- to enable the use of a cashless catering system

The lawful basis on which we use this information

We collect and use pupil information under

- Article 6 and Article 9 of General Data Protection Regulation
- Data collection Census purposes - Education Act 1996. This information can be found in the census guide documents on the following website <https://www.gov.uk/education/data-collection-and-censuses-for-schools>

Collecting pupil information

Whilst the majority of pupil information you provide to us is mandatory and the school has a legal basis to collect it, some pupil information is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), the school will inform you whether you are required to provide certain pupil information or if your consent is needed. Where consent is required, the school will provide you with specific and explicit information with regards to the reasons the data is being collected and how the data is being used.

Retaining and Disposing of pupil data

Personal data relating to pupils and their families is stored in line with the school's Data Protection Policy. We retain and dispose of records in accordance with our records retention and destruction policy.

Who we share pupil information with

We are required to share pupils' data with the DFE on a statutory basis. We routinely share pupil information with:

- schools that the pupil's attend after leaving us
- our local authority
- the Department for Education (DfE) (Statutory)
- School Nurse, NHS.
- The National Pupil Database (NPD)

Why we share pupil information

We do not share information about our pupils with anyone without consent, unless there is a legal basis to do. Examples of legal basis for sharing information is given below.

We share pupils' data with the Department for Education (DfE) on a statutory basis. This data sharing underpins school funding and educational attainment policy and monitoring. We are required to share information about our pupils with our local authority (LA) and the Department for Education (DfE) under section 3 of The Education (Information About Individual Pupils) (England) Regulations 2013.

Youth Support Services

Once you are aged 13 or over, we are required by law to pass on certain information to the provider of youth support services in your area. This is the LA support service for young people aged 13 to 19 in England. We must provide both the name and address of you and your parents (and your date of birth) and any further information relevant to the support services' role.

However, until you are aged 16 or older, your parent(s) can ask that no information beyond your name, address and date of birth (and their name and address) be passed on to the youth services provider. This right transfers to you on your 16th birthday. Please inform the Admin/Data Manger if this is what you or your parents wish.

For more information about young peoples' services locally please go to the LA website shown above, or the DirectGov Young People page at www.direct.gov.uk/en/YoungPeople/index.htm.
