

Sixth Form Uniform Dress Code:

The reputation of The Mosslands School is influenced by the appearance and behaviour of all pupils and students. We expect the Sixth Form students to maintain high standards and thereby set a good example to younger pupils.

The aim is for students to be guided by the principles of appropriate smart dress. There should be a clear distinction between what is worn in the evening, on holiday or at the weekend and what is worn during the working week. We expect such clothing to be clean and tidy, typical of what is acceptable in an adult, corporate environment.

Suitable dress: Boys

- Smart trousers, shirt and tie with a jacket or jumper.
- Alternatively, a fine knit polo neck t-shirt can be worn instead of a shirt/tie with black jeans or chino style trousers.
- Footwear - Smart, fully plain light brown, dark brown or black polishable shoes or solid black pumps or trainers.
- Smart outside coat or jacket. No hooded tops or denim jackets.

Suitable dress: Girls

- Smart trousers or skirt and shirt with a jacket or jumper. (Skirts must be a suitable length)
- Midriffs, décolletage and shoulders should be covered at all times.
- Alternatively, a fine knit polo neck t-shirt can be worn instead of a shirt with black jeans.
- Footwear - Smart, fully plain light brown, dark brown or black polishable shoes or solid black pumps.
- Smart outside coat or jacket. No hooded tops or denim jackets.

Clothing that is too revealing or likely to cause embarrassment of self or others must be avoided. If you are not sure if something is acceptable, choose something else or inquire first.

Consequences

Consequences of not following the dress code:

- Inappropriate clothing or footwear will result in the student receiving a phone call home.
- If a student does wear clothing or footwear deemed inappropriate for school the student may be sent home to change clothes by one of the Sixth Form team.
- Accepting and adhering to our dress code remains a condition of entry.
- Senior staff are the final arbiters.

PLEASE NOTE: Students who are studying for any of the Sport qualifications or the Public Services qualification with Protective Services Academy will be required to wear the appropriate kit.
