

VOLUNTEER PUPPY WALKER

Main Purpose of Role

To raise and care for a Guide Dogs puppy within a home environment from the age of 6 to 7 weeks of age to approximately 12 to 15 months.

You will be providing the puppy with a vital and firm foundation for its future career with a visually impaired person.

Responsible to

Puppy Walking Supervisor

Main Tasks

- To raise and care for a puppy in accordance with Guide Dog policies and procedures.
- To familiarise and socialise the puppy to many different environments and people under the guidance of the Puppy Walking Supervisor.
- To teach basic obedience commands.

What we ask of you

- To observe the policies, procedures and rules of Guide Dogs
- To work as part of a team with other volunteers and staff, and to make new people welcome
- To undertake your role to the highest standards and quality of service

Our Responsibility to you

- To observe the policies, procedures and rules of Guide Dogs
- To work as a team with volunteers and staff, and to make new people welcome
- To provide advice, support, information, training and resources to enable you to undertake your role safely and effectively